P. J. McCarthy Dead.

When the news of the death of P. J. McCarthy reached Paris at an early hour yesterday expressions of the profoundest sorrow could be heard on every hand.

Mr. McCarthy was stricken with uremic poisoning several weeks ago. He seemed to be improving for several days, but was taken worse last week when he was removed from his home on Pleasant street, this city, to the St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, where he gradually grew weaker until he passed away at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. McCarthy was born on March 23, 1859, at New Albany, Ind. He moved with his parents to Kentucky at an early age. He graduated from Kentucky University, Lexington. Immediately thereafter he, in company with Thos. C. Lyng, formerly of Paris, taught in the St. Paul High School Lexington. He accepted the position of individual bookkeeper in the Deposit bank of Paris in 1882, and on August 20, 1892 was elected cashier of this institution by the Board of Directors. He filled with honor to himself and with great success for the bank, until the sickle of Death cut him down, this important position.

There was no more popular man in Paris than "Pat," as he was familiarly called by his host of friends. He was considered an expert when it came to the banking business. He was a loving and indulgent husband and father, a true friend and a man of the strictest and highest business integrity, the very soul of honor.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Margaret Roche, of Lexington, and five children, three sons and two daughters—Charles, Frank and Justin McCarthy and Mary and Margaret McCarthy; one sister, Miss Mary McCarthy and one half sister, Miss Julia McCarthy.

In the death of P. J. McCarthy Paris loses one of its best and most prominent citizens—a friend to everybody. Peace to his ashes.

The funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Catholic church, in Lexington Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial in Lexington cemetery.

Old Friends Meet.

Mr. J. M. Wakefield, member of the firm that purchased the old G. G. White homestead, met an old friend here that he had not seen for 37 years, Mr. Chas. H. Meng, of North Middle-town.

In 1871, Mr. Wakefield and Mr. Meng were partners in buying and shipping mules to Southern markets, and together traveled extensively through Mississippi. The partnership was dissolved and not until Tuesday have they seen one another since that time.

Of Interest to Democrats.

The National Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee has begun active operations at its headquarters at Washington, D. C. In addition to its regular work, it is now preparing a Campaign hand-book which it hopes to have ready for distribution by July 1—two or three months earlier than heretofore.

The Committee is charged with the duty of assisting, in every way possible, the election of a Democratic Congress. We wish the active co-operation of every voter in the United States who believes, with us, that the election of a Democratic Congress would greatly benefit the country. We must rely upon the people to sustain our work by giving information as to local conditions, and suggestions for our guidance.

Each individual can at least aid us by making a contribution. Will he not do so and interest others in helping us, too?

We wish our Campaign hand-book distributed as generally as possible, and we will furnish a copy, as soon as published, to every one who contributes to our Committee.

Send remittances to me at Washington, D. C.

JAMES T. LLOYD, Chairman.

A Bill of Merit.

The vaudeville theatre continues to draw good crowds on the strength of the meritorious features that are being presented this week by Messrs. Freeman's educated goats, Miss Jenkins Le Bulger, dramatic reader and monologuist, Lewis Nesson, song illustrator Avery & Carl, black-faced comedians, late of Barlow's minstrel, and the moving pictures.

Either of the above are alone well worth the small admission charged and those who have not visited the theatre this week are doing themselves a great injustice.

An matinee especially for ladies and children will be given to-morrow afternoon at which time the prices will be five cents for the little folks and ten cents for adults.

Revising the Tariff.

The Republicans, if they control the next Congress will not need the advice and assistance of a Tariff Commission, for all they need do is to call in the experts and attorneys of the Trusts. That is what they did in 1897 when the present tariff law was fixed up. What is the use of deceiving the taxpayers, as Congressman Payne does, by declaring that "tariffs have always been made without anything like adequate information."

Mr. Payne and the other members of the Ways and Means Committee were fully advised, when they were considering the Dingley tariff law, that the high rates demanded by Mr. Carnegie and the Steel Trust people would breed monopoly. When they allowed the Standard Oil Trust attorney to write the proviso to the oil schedule they knew they were protecting the trust and adding at least 50 per cent. to the price of kerosene to the American people and the poorest people at that.

When they accepted the Beef Trust schedule on hides they pretended to be protecting the American farmer, but they knew they were helping the Leather and Beef Trusts. When they accepted the wool schedule of the Wool Growers' Association they knew they were adding 75 per cent, at least, to the cost of woolen goods to those people of Northern States, who from necessity have to buy them and instead of helping the farmers, it was the flockmasters of the great Western plains that were mostly benefited. When they wrote the schedule that protects the Paper Trust they must have known the newspaper owners would have to pay the tariff duty in increased profits to the trust. Not a schedule, but was carefully considered and all with the same intent and purpose of adding to the burdens of the people for the benefits of the Trusts.

The Trusts were well acquainted with the facts and in return have been most liberal contributors to the campaign fund of not only the Republican National Committees, but also to the committee who manages the election of Congressmen. Millions have been paid by the trusts and protected monopolies to secure the election of President and Congressmen, both of the Senate and House, who were "sound on the tariff."

And now the same old show is to be played again with a different title and the excuse that there must be added maximum schedule rates to protect us from the pauper labor of England whose workingmen are now in better circumstances than our own workmen are because their cost of living is so much less.

The English workingman has lower wages, but the world to draw upon for his necessities, for every country, including the United States, sells him his surplus products in competition with each other, with no tariff duties to speak of to add to the price. Here everything imported that is manufactured is taxed and the trusts profit by adding the tariff rate to their own natural profit. The only difference being that the government collects the tariff tax on the goods imported and the trusts collect the tariff tax on their products produced here while the tariff protects them from foreign competition. It is now proposed to promise the people to revise the tariff "after election," but whether the tariff is to be revised lower or higher is left to the imagination of the voter. As the Republican leaders now declare they must enact a maximum tariff as well as a minimum tariff, it is evident that some of the trusts want still higher rates and no doubt they will be accommodated by their friends, the Republican politicians.

No Need for Them.

Anything savoring of military rule should only be resorted to when civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace or secure order, notwithstanding the opinion of a Republican Governor to the contrary. Squads of soldiers are still riding through the tobacco growing section, "with sword and pistol by their side." They tarry in the towns long enough to impress people with their presence and then ride away. There is no trouble in the Blue Grass country and people very naturally resent the presence of sol-

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ on the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, unguessed glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dog Law.

The constitutionality of the famous dog law, about which so much has been said and written and which the last Legislature refused to repeal in spite of the pressure brought to bear on the members was argued Saturday before the Court of Appeals in the case of Maglone against Womack, from Carter county. Elwood Hamilton, of Frankfort, represented the dog and Attorney General James Breathitt defended the law. A decision is expected within a short time.

Look Out For Them.

Official notice is sent out from Washington warning the public against two counterfeits that have just appeared. One is a $10 United States note or "greenback" and the other a $20 gold certificate. As the counterfeits are poorly executed and the workmanship is of an inferior order those accustomed to handling currency should not be easily deceived. On the whole there is little counterfeiting of this sort nowadays, and moderate amount of watchfulness will enable almost any person to avoid being swindled.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

Fresh butter milk on ice at Proctor & Co's.

Mrs. Edward Davis and son, of Indianapolis, arrived Monday for a visit to relatives.

Mr. F. F. Hurst and family spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Elizaville.

Six Knights J. B. Cray and S. M. Allen left Tuesday for the annual K. T. conclave at Lebanon.

Attorney J. J. Williams, of Paris, and Matt Walton, of Lexington, were here Tuesday taking the deposition of Postmaster R. B. Boulden in the suit of W. E. Butler against the Lexington Herald.

The annual commencement of the Millersburg College was held Monday morning at 10:30 at the Methodist church, when Misses Mary Morton Arnold, Anna Foxworthy, Virginia Hutchcraft, Katherine Cooke, Anna Wright, Earle Brown, Ethel Love Fisher and Cynthia Thorne, all of Kentucky, received their degrees.

As they took their places on the platform they were saluted by the student body of the institution, all rising to their feet. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Wright, of Pleasureville, after which essays were read by Misses Hutchcraft and Foxworthy.

The literary address was delivered by Rev. R. S. Sanders of the Presbyterian church, of this place on the subject: "My Mind to me a Kingdom Is." Prof. C. C. Fisher, of the institution, presented the diplomas in an eloquent and appropriate address, after which the honor roll and other reports were read.

One of the most pleasant features of the occasion was the beautiful solo: "Dream of Paradise," by Mrs. Johnson, instructor in voice.

Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, of Frankfort, pronounced the benediction, thus closing one of the most brilliant and interesting commencement programs in the history of Millersburg Female College.

In the first really fast game played on the local grounds this season, M. M. I. defeated Smith Business College nine of Lexington Wednesday, by the score of 5 to 3.

Although the Cadets were handicapped by the absence of Fant and the crippled condition of Captain Ingels, they showed a dash that reminded the local fans of the famous aggregation of 1907. The M. M. I. boys seem to have struck their gait and fast games are looked for in the future.

Both teams played fine ball. Both pitchers twirled well and received superb support. Fagan pitched his best game of the season, showing good control with men on bases.

For the Cadets, Renick deserves special mention, his two singles with a man on second each time accounting for two tallies. Haley caught a fine game, not allowing a pass ball.

The features of the game were Fagan's striking out two men with second and third occupied; the catching of Stough; the splendid handling of a difficult fly in left by Baker, and Robertson's fast work at third. The line-up follows:

M. M. J.—Haley, c.; Fagan, p.; Rothrie, 1b.; Renick, 2b.; Robertson, 3b.; Ingels, ss.; Bellinger, cf.; Hinson, lf.; Hargis, rf.

Smith's—Stough, c.; Legg and Campbell, p.; Dunkle, 1b.; McFarland, 2b.; Campbell and Legg, 3b.; Richardson, ss.; Baker, cf.; Bryant, lf.; Woolcott, rf.

Miss Virginia Hutchcraft entertained Saturday a dozen of her girl friends with a five o'clock luncheon.

The M. M. I. and North Middle-town ball teams will cross bats Saturday afternoon on M. M. J. grounds.

Mr. Henry Hutchcraft, of Louisville, arrived Saturday as the guest of his daughter, Miss Virginia Hutchcraft.

Mr. J. R. Burbury, wife and son, of Centerville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. J. F. McDaniel and family.

Sunday night at eleven o'clock, sixteen of the State Guards came to town, leaving Monday afternoon for Danville.

Most of the faculty and students of M. F. C. left Wednesday for their homes. A few still guests of the home girls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leer, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Leer and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Carter, of Paris.

I have for rent one 6-room house which I will paint, paper and put in perfect condition for anyone contracting for one year or longer. Good garden spot and yard with fruit.

PEALE COLLIER.

Mrs. Wm. Carpenter gave an exquisite luncheon Saturday from 12:30 to 2. The announcement was made of the marriage of her niece, Miss Eddie Carpenter, to Mr. Charles Wesley Friend, of Irvine, to take place June 10. Miss Eddie is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carpenter and is a bright attractive young lady. Mr. Friend is a young lawyer of much promise.

Monday afternoon the faculty and students of M. F. C. held an informal reception in the Park, which was taken advantage of by many of their friends, especially the young men, bachelors and widowers.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock the annual concert was held at the opera house. The audience was larger than at any previous concert in many years. All the young ladies proved that they had been skillfully trained and had put in many hours of hard practice. Space will not permit us to take up this program by numbers.

At the close of the concert the young men were granted the privilege of escorting the young ladies to the college. To them this was the most pleasant event of the evening.

I will offer for sale at Millersburg next Tuesday and Wednesday, a general line of greenhouse goods, among them roses in variety, palms, ferns, rubber plants, Norfolk Island pine and other decoration plants, geranium, cannae, begonias, and many other plants in variety. Come and see my goods and buy what you need. Prices reasonable. Respectfully,

H. C. OGLE, SR.

The young men gave a hop Wednesday evening at the opera house. It was the most elaborate affair of the kind since September 1903. The house was beautifully decorated. The national colors prevailed throughout. The music was furnished by the famous Saxton orchestra of Lexington. The costumes were handsome and guests were present from all the surrounding towns.

The grand march opened at 9 o'clock and was made up of about twenty-five couples. At midnight a delightful supper was served at the Taylor House. After the second part of the program was taken up and the long remembered occasion did not close until the wee hours of morning.

Big Fire at Mayfield.

A telephone message from Mayfield, Ky., twenty-five miles south of Paducah was received yesterday morning asking for fire apparatus. A large sawmill, several warehouses and a number of residences were reported burning with little hope of saving the larger portion of the town, owing to the fact that Mayfield has no fire protection. The Paducah fire department sent help by special train. The message stated that the fire originated in the tobacco warehouses and is believed to have been started by a band of night riders.

Night Riders in Scott.

In the past week night riders visited the northern part of Scott county and destroyed about a dozen beds of tobacco plants belonging to tenants on the farms of T. J. Burgess, near Sadieville; S. K. Lee, near Hinton, and Dr. Carl Henry, near Stonewall. The beds destroyed were those of Jerry Teagarten, Tom Jones, Rufus Fields and Claud Ireland. The band consisted of about seventy-five men on horseback and in buggies. They have also been busy in other sections of the State, notwithstanding the Wilson soldiers are patrolling the State.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Paris People Have Learned to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

You can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are strong and well, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong healthy kidneys.

P. O'Malley, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "When about twenty-one years of age I did some heavy lifting and sprained my back. From that time on, I was bothered by the most acute backaches, sometimes disappearing for a week but always returning with renewed severity. About two years ago when I started working as a blacksmith, the constant bending and stooping required aggravated my trouble and to say that I was in misery hardly expresses my condition. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were advertised to cure such troubles as mine, I got a box. I took them according to directions and after a few doses felt relieved. Continuing with them for a short time longer, my trouble entirely disappeared and I have not had a return of it since. I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the praise for curing me and should I ever feel the slightest return of the annoyance, I would immediately resort to their use."

Two Important Suits.

Mrs. Hattie Hutchcraft Hill and others, through their attorneys, Walton, Dickson & Walton. Tuesday filed an appeal in the Bourbon Circuit Court from the judgment of the Bourbon County Court admitting to probate the will of the late Mrs. Mary F. Hedges. The instrument of appeal recites that the will, which is dated April 12, 1895, and witnessed by E. P. Clarke and J. T. Quisenberry, and which was admitted to probate on October 7, 1907, is not the last will and testament of the decedent and that it be set aside as null and void.

The other suit filed Tuesday was a damage suit, Russell Howe vs. James Gray. It is for $25,000 and from allegations of the petitions it will be quite a sensational suit when tried.

MATRIMONIAL.

The ceremony uniting in holy bonds of wedlock Miss Hattie Hill Mann and Dr. William Kenney Dudley was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Russell Mann, on Pleasant street. The wedding was a very quiet one on account of the bride's family being in mourning.

The library, hall and parlor were beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and roses of cut flowers. Mantels and doorways were draped with graceful hanging vines. There were no attendants. The bride was lovely in a going-away tailored gown of blue with hat and gloves to match and carried a large bunch of American beauty roses. The guests included the families of the bride and bridegroom and few intimate friends.

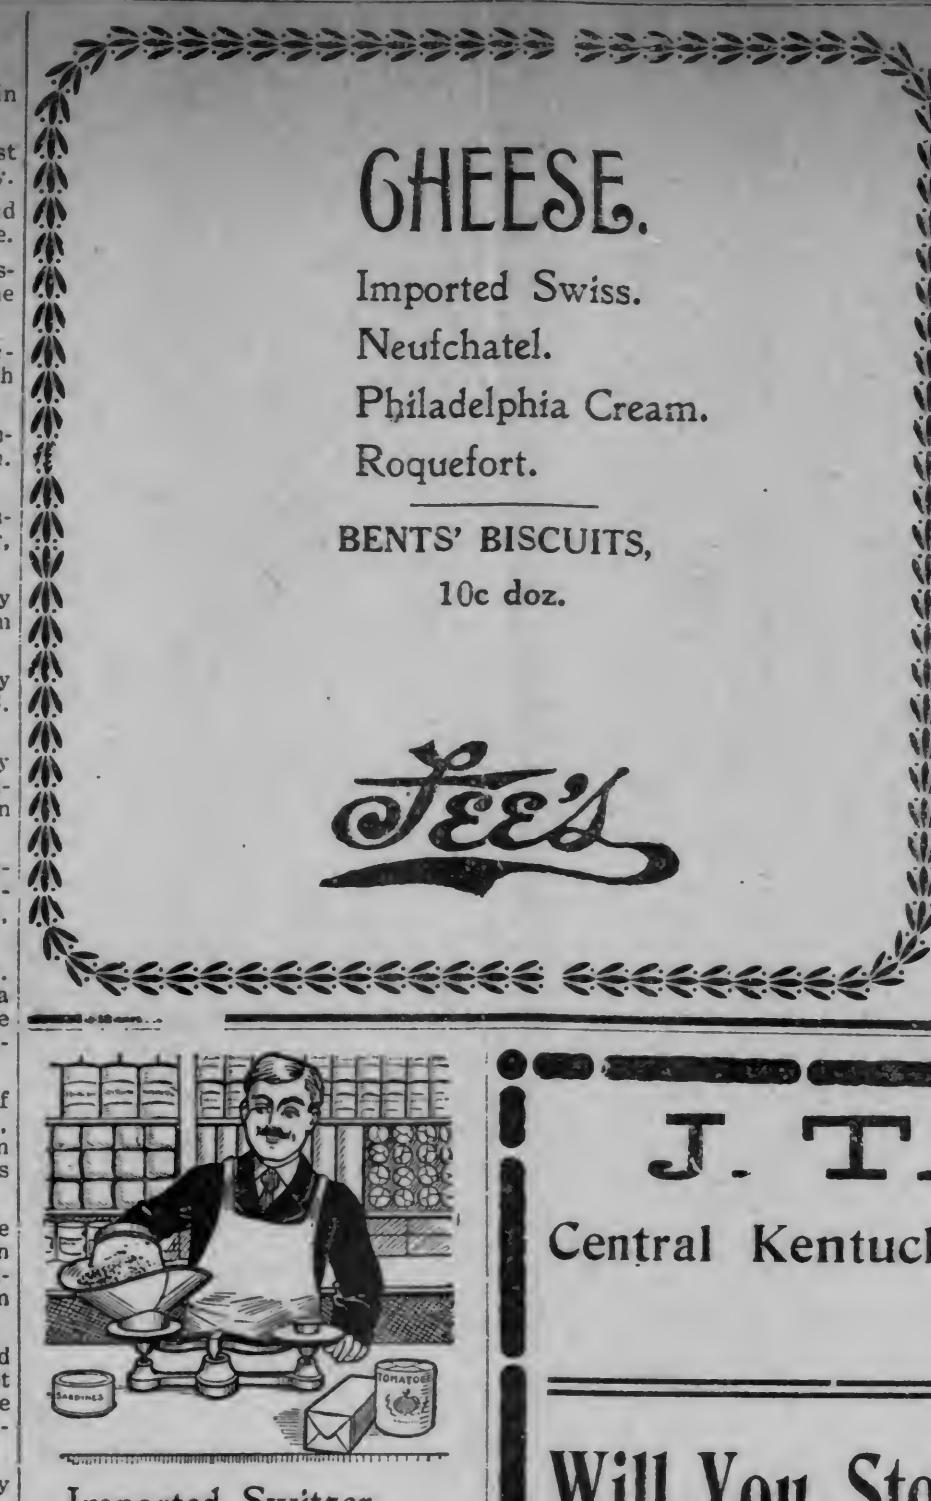

The bride's table in the dining room was decorated with silver candlesticks with pink and white candles and vases of cut flowers on an exquisite lace cover. Individual ices and cakes were served. The gifts numbered about two hundred and among them were some exquisite pieces of silver and cut glass.

Dr. and Mrs. Dudley left on the three thirty train for a wedding journey and will be at home on Mt. Airy avenue after May the twenty-eighth.

Forest Denmark

This noted sire will make the season of 1908 at my home, on the Harrod's creek pike, 8 miles from Paris and 4 miles from North Middletown, at $20 to Insure a Living Colt.

DESCRIPTION.—Forest Denmark is a solid bay, 16 hands high, has great natural style; carries head and tail high, and is not second to any stallion in Kentucky as a getter of high-priced saddle and harness horses.

He has always been at the head of the stud at Woodford's Stock Farm, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. I was able to get him from the fact that my father's brood mares are nearly all by him.

Forest Denmark is the sire of the Chancellor that won sixteen blue tie, in 1906, also his mate The Cardinal, which team won, single and double, thirty-eight blue ties in 1907. He has sired three other geldings which sold at an average price of $2,521.

The breeders of Bourbon county have never had, and probably never will have again, the opportunity to breed to the equal of Forest Denmark at $20. TERMS.—Money due as soon as colt comes, mare parted with or bred to another horse. Mares from a distance grazed at $3 a month. Every precaution will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible for those that occur.

For further information apply to CATESBY WOODFORD, JR., R. F. D. No. 2, Paris, Ky. Phone 68, Middletown exchange.

WIGGINS

No. 33907

Two-year-old Record 2:19½—Brown Horse, 15½—A Colt Trotter and Sire of Colt Trotters.

SEASON 1908Fee $50 The Season

To Insure a Mare in Foal.

Sam'l Clay,
Paris, - - - Kentucky.

WIGGINS is a horse of attractive quality, and with fine feet and legs. In disposition and manners he is perfect. His colts are uniformly good colors and inherit his bold, frictionless way of going. They are generally pure gaited and trot with light shoes and few boots. WIGGINS himself wore a 7-ounce shoe with no boots in front. He was foaled a trotter, and as a yearling trotted a mile over a three-quarter mile track in 2:33½. He took his record when two years old and won five straight stake races and $4,600 that season. Douglas Thomas, his trainer, says he could have trotted a mile over a good track in 2:12. His colts not only trot fast young, but sell for high prices. He was himself a bold finisher and his colts are like him in this respect. For an out-cross for in-bred mares you can't do better than to breed to WIGGINS, though he nicks well with mares of any breeding. No other stallion of any age has ever accomplished more than WIGGINS. No other stallion of any age ever had three two-year-olds to beat 2:18 trotting in one year. No other stallion ever had seven trotters in 2:20 list at ten years.

Modern Conversation.

A writer in a popular magazine deplores the poverty of the present-day conversation, also its insincerity, particularly on the part of the young men, whose talk consists mostly of flattery and frivolous love-making. Is not the young woman greatly to blame for this? An observer of social doings declares that it is impossible to interest the average girl in any talk that is not flavored with compliment and courtesy—that no matter in what direction the bargee of conversation is steered, she manages adroitly to tow it into the port of sentiment. Perhaps this is because it is the only ground on which the average young man and young woman can meet. They have no other ideas and sympathies in common. The young man devotes himself to business, but he manages to read the newspapers and keeps up with the intelligence of the day; the girl reads the society, page, the fashion magazine and the latest and lightest novel. If he should bring into his talk any comment on public movements abroad or at home, or on the political questions of the day or even minor local matters of movement, she would yawn behind her fan, or her pretty pout would tell him that she was mentally voting him a dry strick. What wonder that he interprets the pout, and proceeds to change it to smile by telling her how chic she looked in her Easter hat, or that he chose his violet tie because it was just the shade of her eyes.

But the good conversationalist does not talk learnedly or stiltedly. Small talk may be made entertaining and even thought suggesting. Tact enters more largely into conversation than into any other form of social life.—Mary E. Bryan, in Uncle Remus's—The Home Magazine for May.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured.

An honorable citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lots no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Good for Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, at the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50 cents at Oberdorfer's drug store.

The petition of all the Democratic members of Congress and Mr. Parker, of South Dakota, a Republican, to Speaker Cannon, asking for consideration of the bill to put wood pulp and print paper on the free list, will receive about as little attention as the other reform measures.

Whooping Cough.

In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane, of Hartland, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Goss, of Durand, Mich. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Billion Dollar Congress.

The Sixtieth Congress will have earned the title of "Billion Dollar Congress" at its first session before adjournment is taken at the end of this week. It is estimated that the appropriations will reach the enormous sum of $1,026,000,000, which is said to be the largest amount ever appropriated in a single session.

Immense Diocese in India.

The Episcopal bishop of Lucknow presides over a diocese greater in extent than the whole of Great Britain, it having a population of about 48,000,000, of whom only 102,000 are Christians.

The Canteen.

The removal of the canteen has offered to idle, unscrupulous people near reservations an opportunity to make money by furnishing to soldiers poor beer in unlimited quantities and in the lowest surroundings. On the face it is easy to see that the condition is not a desirable one. There is no one with authority to insist upon the amount or kind of liquor sold, and the element engaging in the business now in a most deplorable association for the enlisted men.—General J. Franklin Bell, Chief of Staff of the Army.

Novel Birthday Party.

Something new in the way of birthday parties was one representing the four seasons. Each guest came dressed to designate the season in which he or she was born. There were four refreshment tables at which these four divisions partook of viands especially suggestive of their seasons.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Dr. Henry Schwartz, grandson of Jacob Schwartz, of Paris, and a former resident of Paris, was a heavy loser by the burning of some valuable horses in the recent big fire in Atlanta, Ga., where he now resides.

—Dr. D. S. Henry has purchased the Smith farm of 55 acres on the Briar Hill pike, seven miles from Lexington. The farm is all in grass and very desirable. The price is private.

—Up to this time there have been 33 fat steers that have died from eating white clover. Earl Ferguson and Squire Jake Keller are the latest to lose one each.

—Monday was court day at Mt. Sterling, there were about 5,000 cattle on the market. The best 1,000-pound steers selling at 5 to 5½ cents; yearlings at 4½ to 5 cents per pound; heifers from 3½ to 4½ cents for fat ones; cows from 3 to 3½ cents; old cows and oxen 1½ to 2 cents.

—At Georgetown court Monday the stock market was slimly represented and there was but little business. A heavy shower about 2 o'clock drove the crowd from the streets. Auctioneer Ben B. Peak sold only 190 cattle on the market. All were sold, at about 5 cents per pound. Heifers brought $4.15 per cwt. Some mules were sold at good prices.

Well to Remember.

Disengaged farmers should remember the season of only twelve months ago. They, with everyone else are apt to say that this is the most backward spring they ever saw, when a little reflection will show that they are entirely wrong.

A year ago we had a very backward and discouraging spring. It is true there was not so much cold weather as at present, but the rain continued so long and was so persistent that everyone claimed there would be no crop raised. Much of the corn was planted in June, and nearly all of the rest went in the ground late in May.

Even under these circumstances a very good crop was produced, and only a small per cent of the corn was actually and wholly lost. A great deal of it never reached maturity, but even that was not a total loss. As dark as the outlook has been this spring, it is better than afforded last year.

So what's the use worrying? It will all come around right, and what will be lost by unavoidable circumstances can be made up in some other way if one only believes and wills it.

Most Remarkable Picture Ever Made.

The most marvelous photograph ever made, showing 500 different views of President Roosevelt assembled in one big picture, forms the double-page feature of the June Woman's Home Companion. These hundreds of photographs, taken in almost every State and Territory in the Union, show our strenuous President in all periods of his public life—as cowboy, rough rider, governor, speaking, lecturing, on horseback, etc. Whether we admire Mr. Roosevelt or not, we cannot but marvel at the great collection of photographs of this human dynamo which have been brought together here in one picture. It is the most remarkable picture ever made.

Scarcity of Cattle.

A well known cattle buyer of the State says of the situation:

"There is a scarcity of cattle in Kentucky as well as in the great cattle producing States of the West, and this is primarily responsible for the high price of beef," said J. W. Bates, of Richmond, Monday.

"Last year when the financial panic came on," continued Mr. Bates "many of the large cattle raisers of the West hurried their cattle to market and sold them regardless of price, in order to turn them into money before the expected crisis came. Consequently the West was pretty well drained of its cattle stock. Corn was fed abundantly to get these cattle ready for market and now there is a scarcity of corn in many of the Western States."

"Right now, I am told that seed corn in Kansas and Nebraska is selling at $3 and $3.50 per bushel—not per barrel, mind you, but per bushel, which is unprecedented except when the Western drought several years ago put up the price. At this figure corn is too high to feed to cattle and the grass fed cattle are not ready for market. While corn is, of course, not that high here, still at $3.50 and $4 a barrel, farmers regard it as too valuable to feed to cattle, and consequently very few are ready for market but are waiting to be fattened on grass."

"There are fewer cattle fattened in Kentucky than in former years. Prices are away up yonder—fat export cattle being quoted at $6 and $6.50 per hundred. I have engaged a number for early delivery in Madison and adjoining counties at these prices. Grass is more abundant than I ever saw it in this section, and this will have a tendency to improve the situation. If not for this fact cattle and beef would be higher than they are. I do not look for any decrease in the price of beef until after the grass fed cattle reach the market, and the conditions in the West, together with the financial stringency may have the effect of keeping up the price."
